SHREYA PATEL

12/05/2026

STARTUP EMPLOYEE HR POLICY

INTRODUCTION:-

This HR Policy is designed to create a professional, respectful, and productive work environment for all employees of the startup. The policies mentioned below are applicable to all interns, full-time employees, and contractual staff.

1. Leave Policy:-

The company believes in maintaining a healthy work-life balance and provides employees with leave benefits accordingly.

Types of Leave

a) Casual Leave;

Employees are entitled to 12 casual leaves per year.

Casual leave should be applied for at least 1 day in advance, except in emergencies.

b) Sick Leave;

Employees can avail up to 6 sick leaves per year.

In case of illness for more than 2 consecutive days, a medical certificate may be requested.

c) Earned Leave;

Employees working continuously for one year may receive earned leave benefits based on company performance and management approval.

d) Unpaid Leave;

If all available leaves are exhausted, employees may request unpaid leave with prior approval from the reporting manager

Leave Approval process;

1.All leave requests must be submitted through email or the company's communication platform

2.Leave approval depends on work requirements and team availability

2.Code of Conduct:-

The company expects every employee to maintain professionalism and ethical behavior at the workplace.

Workplace Behavior;

1.Employees should treat colleagues, clients, and management with respect.

2.Harassment, discrimination, bullying, or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated.

3.Employees must maintain punctuality and complete assigned work responsibly.

Professional Ethics;

1.Confidential company information should not be shared outside the organization.

2.Employees should avoid conflicts of interest that may affect company operations.

3.Misuse of company resources, systems, or data is strictly prohibited.

Communication Standards;

1.Professional language should be used in emails, meetings, and official chats.

2.Employees are encouraged to communicate openly and respectfully.

Any workplace issues should be reported to HR or management immediately.

Disciplinary Action;

Violation of company policies may result in:

1.Suspension

2.Warning Notices

3.Termination of employment depending on the seriousness of the issue

3.Work-From-Home guidelines:-

The company supports flexible work arrangements while ensuring productivity and collaboration.

Eligibility;

1.Employees may work from home with manager approval.

2.Interns or probationary employees may receive limited work-from-home access depending on project requirements.

Working Hours;

1.Employees are expected to be available during official working hours.

2.Attendance in online meetings and timely responses to communication are mandatory.

Productivity Expectations;

1.Employees should complete assigned tasks within deadlines.

2.Daily or weekly progress updates may be required by managers.

Data Security;

1.Employees must use secure internet connections while working remotely.

2.Company files and confidential information should not be shared with unauthorized individuals.

3.Official company devices and accounts should be used responsibly.

Communication;

1.Employees should remain active on official communication platforms during work hours.

2.Any technical issue affecting work should be reported immediately.